COURSE DESCRIPTION
This is the FIRST course of a three part beginning series at the University of Florida. Students will master vocabulary, morphology, and syntax in chapters 1-14 of Wheelock’s Latin, and practice in the fluid translation of Latin to English & English to Latin. Students will leave this class prepared to succeed in Latin 2.

COURSE OBJECTIVES
Students will become acquainted with the inflectional patterns of Latin, and will be able to easily recognize different forms of declensions and conjugations. Students will also acquire, from the very beginning, a rich vocabulary, which will constitute an introduction to Roman culture, as well as an aid in memorization and familiarization with the grammatical structures of Latin language. Students will be asked to practice daily and eventually master their ability to translate from one language into the other. Thus, they will significantly improve the awareness of both languages, English and Latin, in their respective elements of vocabulary, morphology, and syntax.

ACTIVITIES
These objectives will be accomplished through:
1. Written exercises both in class and assigned as homework
2. Regular practice reading Latin, translating into English, and composing Latin sentences.
3. Oral drill and recitation for proper pronunciation.
4. Quizzes and exams:
   a. Two weekly quizzes, one 5 min. in class quiz (usually on Fridays) for Vocabulary (20 entries, 20 points), one 10-20 min. online quiz to be completed over the weekend (due BEFORE class on Mondays) for morphology, syntax, and translation.
   b. 2 lowest Quiz grades dropped.
   c. Two 50 min. in-class exams (see calendar), and one NON CUMULATIVE 2-hour final exam. Each exam assumes students have mastered the material of all previous chapters.

All students are expected to complete 100% of classrooms activities.

GRADING POLICY
Homework, attendance/participation, and quizzes make-up collectively for 35% of your final grade. The remaining 65% is assigned to exams. Quizzes (online and in class), therefore, are intended as a weekly check of your understanding of the material, and an aid to develop consistency in your study progress. It is therefore very beneficial to your learning experience and your final grade to use quizzes as tools to check your understanding and identify what you need to review, or focus on, so that you can perform better during the exams. Grades are weighted as follows:

- 10% Homework
- 10% Attendance & Participation
- 15% Quizzes
- 20% Exam 1 Feb 9 (Chapters 1-4)
- 20% Exam 2 Mar. 23 (Chapters 5-9)
- 25% Final May 1 3.00-5.00 PM (Chapters 1-14)

Textbooks and Required Material
- A notebook for daily use in class and homework. Only a responsible use of electronic devices such as laptops and tablets is allowed for note taking purposes.

Email/Canvas
Assignments and quizzes will for the most part be accounted for online. Homework assignment must be uploaded either in pdf format (preferred), or as a scan/picture of your handwritten work. If a student misses a quiz or homework due to an excused absence, he or she will be expected to make it up, with no exceptions. Unannounced late or missed assignments will earn a 0. Students are also expected to check Canvas and email regularly, and to respond, when needed, within a reasonable time.

Classroom Policies and Etiquette
1. Perfect attendance is expected. For every unexcused absence over three you will lose a point from the final course grade. For absence due to participation in an official university activity, observance of a religious holiday, performance of a military duty, or any other reason as per the University policy, the student is required to notify the instructor before the day of the absence, and if possible at the start of the semester, in order to arrange make up time and procedures. No makeups allowed for unexcused absences.

2. Participation in class: best way to learn Latin is to actively participate in class. It is a goal of the instructor not to let a session go by without having every student talk at least once. Therefore, students should be prepared to interact, either voluntarily, or when called upon. It is not a problem to make a mistake during one of the class sessions. It is actually the better way to learn. Also, students are highly encouraged to bring to class any question that rose out of the readings or the homework.

3. Common Courtesy: Cell phones and other electronic devices not used for instructional purposes must be turned off or silenced and stored during class. Students who receive or make calls or text messages during class will be asked to leave and marked absent for the day.

4. Late or Make-Up Assignments: Homework which is found to be incomplete will be graded as incomplete (equivalent to a 0) and late work will not be accepted. You may receive an extension on an assignment only in extraordinary circumstance and only if the request for the extension is prompt, timely, and accompanied by all necessary written documentation.

5. Classroom Accommodation: The University of Florida is committed to providing academic accommodations for students with disabilities. Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, a student should present his/her accommodation letter to me supporting a request for accommodation. The University encourages students with disabilities to follow these procedures as early as possible within the semester.

Please provide the instructor with the necessary documentation at the start of the semester or no less than five business days ahead of a scheduled exam.

6. Evaluate your Instructor: Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, and students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at evaluations.ufl.edu/results.

7. Academic Integrity: UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code.” On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. You are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor.

8. Counseling Resources: Students who face difficulties completing the course or who are in need of counseling or urgent help may refer to the University Counseling Center, 301 Peabody Hall, 392-1575, or Student Mental Health, Student Health Care Center, 392-1171. On-campus resources for students also include Sexual Assault Recovery Services (SARS), Student Health Care Center, 392-1161. Please do not wait until the end of the semester to seek help.

9. All class concerns should first be directed to Instructor, and if further discussion is necessary you may direct your concerns to the TA coordinator, Dr. Eleni Bozia, at bozia@ufl.edu.
