

University of Florida Graduate Programs

Student Learning Outcomes Assessment 2010-2011

Academic Unit: Classics

Degree Program: PhD

Delivery Method (on-campus, distance): distance/on-campus hybrid

Student Learning Outcome Stated in Measurable Terms	Assessment Method	Results (Data Summary and Interpretation)
Knowledge: <ul style="list-style-type: none">*Proficiency in Latin language *Ability to interpret primary texts*Knowledge of cultural and historical aspects of ancient Greece and Rome *Proficiency in research methods, including knowledge of current resources in the field	<ul style="list-style-type: none">*Comprehensive Reading Exams in Latin language *Comprehensive exams in culture and history Students will achieve a score of 90% or above on comprehensive exams and thesis, set and graded by a committee of Classics Graduate Faculty	Students demonstrated a thorough understanding of the subject matter at the desired level

University of Florida Graduate Programs

Student Learning Outcomes Assessment 2010-2011

Academic Unit: Classics

Degree Program: PhD

Delivery Method (on-campus, distance): distance/on-campus hybrid

Student Learning Outcome Stated in Measurable Terms	Assessment Method	Results (Data Summary and Interpretation)
Skills: *Demonstrate knowledge of how to construct an argument, evaluate evidence, and justify conclusions *Ability to critique a scholarly argument and to question assumptions *Ability to produce original research in the field	*Coursework *Dissertation *Coursework *Dissertation *Dissertation Students will successfully defend dissertation in public defense, as measured by a committee of Classics Graduate Faculty	Students achieved the desired skills level

University of Florida Graduate Programs

Student Learning Outcomes Assessment 2010-2011

Academic Unit: Classics

Degree Program: PhD

Delivery Method (on-campus, distance): distance/on-campus hybrid

Student Learning Outcome Stated in Measurable Terms	Assessment Method	Results (Data Summary and Interpretation)
Professional Behavior: <ul style="list-style-type: none">*Write effective abstracts*Write effective grant proposals*Develop new courses*Develop a service work ethic*Publish articles	<ul style="list-style-type: none">*Presentations at professional conferences*Receiving grants*Teaching new courses*Work with others in coursework to incorporate multiple points of view and achieve a common goal*Submit articles to peer reviewed journals Students will meet with advisors regularly, improve performance on licensure requirements, submit abstracts to conferences, submit grant proposals, and submit articles to peer reviewed journals Students will work on group projects in on-campus coursework assessed by Classics Graduate Faculty	Students achieved the desired level of professional behavior

University of Florida Graduate Programs

Student Learning Outcomes Assessment 2010-2011

Academic Unit: Classics

Degree Program: MA

Delivery Method (on-campus, distance): distance/on-campus hybrid

Student Learning Outcome Stated in Measurable Terms	Assessment Method	Results (Data Summary and Interpretation)
Knowledge: <ul style="list-style-type: none">*Proficiency in Latin language *Ability to interpret primary texts*Knowledge of cultural and historical aspects of ancient Greece and Rome *Proficiency in research methods, including knowledge of current resources in the field	<ul style="list-style-type: none">*Comprehensive reading exams in Latin language *Comprehensive exams in culture and history Students will achieve a score of 90% or above on comprehensive exams, set and graded by a committee of Classics Graduate Faculty	Students demonstrated a thorough understanding of the subject matter at the desired level

University of Florida Graduate Programs

Student Learning Outcomes Assessment 2010-2011

Academic Unit: Classics

Degree Program: MA

Delivery Method (on-campus, distance): distance/on-campus hybrid

Student Learning Outcome Stated in Measurable Terms	Assessment Method	Results (Data Summary and Interpretation)
Skills: *Demonstrate knowledge of how to construct an argument, evaluate evidence, and justify conclusions *Ability to critique a scholarly argument and to question assumptions *Ability to identify areas of potential research	*Coursework *Thesis *Exit Exam for Masters of Latin Students will successfully defend masters thesis OR exit exam in public defense, as measured by a committee of Classics Graduate Faculty	Students achieved the desired skills level

University of Florida Graduate Programs

Student Learning Outcomes Assessment 2010-2011

Academic Unit: Classics

Degree Program: MA

Delivery Method (on-campus, distance): distance/on-campus hybrid

Student Learning Outcome Stated in Measurable Terms	Assessment Method	Results (Data Summary and Interpretation)
Professional Behavior: *Write effective abstracts *Develop new courses	*Presentations at professional conferences *Teaching new courses Students will meet with advisors regularly, improve performance on licensure requirements, submit abstracts to conferences	Students achieved the desired level of professional behavior