POLICIES
1. Attendance is vital. Points will be docked from the attendance portion of your grade for unexcused absences, tardiness, and early departures.
2. Do the homework every day. Points will be deducted for homework turned in late. In general, we will go over the previous assignment in class: this is your opportunity to correct your mistakes and ask questions about anything that is unclear. After going over the homework assignment in class, I will post the answer key on the Canvas site. I will not make corrections on individual homework assignments; you are responsible for correcting your homework. Let me know immediately if you are struggling.
3. The use of smartphones or other electronic devices during class is strictly prohibited. Refusal to comply, or repeat violations, can result in dismissal from class.
4. Students who registered with the Dean of Students Office for the Fall class may request classroom accommodations for quizzes and exams. Please make the request well in advance.
5. Academic honesty is expected at all times. On all work submitted for credit by students at the university, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

6. Don't forget to provide feedback through a course evaluation! Course evaluations are typically open in the last two to three weeks of the semester (https://evaluations.ufl.edu). Summary results are available at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/.

7. You are not alone! If you are facing stress, depression, or other personal issues this semester, please take advantage of the on-campus counseling center (352-392-1575), or the student mental health center (352-392-1171).
