THE ROMAN AND GREEK NOVEL

This course will focus on the study of a unique literary genre, the ancient novel in the Roman and Greek world. The ancient Greco-Roman novel is the ancestor of the modern novel. There are only two extant Roman novels, Petronius’ Satyricon and Apuleius’ Metamorphoses, and five complete extant Greek novels, all dating between the 1st and the 4th centuries CE.

Scholars have debated their provenance, influences, and social representations. The uncovering of several fragments of novels in languages other than Greek and Latin that predate the surviving works have complicated the matter even more.

During the course of the semester, we will read selections from Petronius’ Satyricon and Apuleius’ Metamorphoses in the original Latin and also translations of Greek novels. In our sessions, we will be translating and also exploring certain issues and questions via secondary readings and students’ presentations.

PREREQUISITE KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS
This is a graduate course. So advanced knowledge of Latin is required.

COURSE POLICIES:

ATTENDANCE / PARTICIPATION
Students are expected to attend class and participate in class discussions and projects and complete peer reviews of projects throughout the semester.

MAKE-UP POLICY

1. There will be no make-up work except in extraordinary and documented cases.

2. Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx

COURSE TECHNOLOGY
The students will be required to have access to, and use a personal computer with the access to the Internet. Word editing software will be required for written assignments.

COURSE COMMUNICATIONS
Students can communicate directly with the Instructor regarding the course material through the course management system (CANVAS), via e-mail, or during office hours.

VIDEO LECTURE CAPTURE
High-quality video lecture capture of this course is available only for enrolled students. These video captures are edited and posted within 24-48 hours of the class meeting for the benefit of the Your Own Time [YOT] students and to offer the potential for review by on-campus and Real Time [RT] on-line students. For the on-campus and RT students, watching lectures in lieu of attending and participating in class is NOT acceptable. Your Instructor may provide you with this semester’s login information during the first week of class. It is not permissible to share or distribute video login information to anyone other than officially enrolled students of this course. Lecture videos can be found at https://vimeo.com/digitalworlds.

UF POLICIES:

UNIVERSITY HONESTY POLICY
UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge that states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct/honor-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

CLASS DEMEANOR
Students are expected to arrive to class on time and behave in a manner that is respectful to the instructor and to fellow students. Please, avoid the use of cell phones.

STUDENTS REQUIRING ACCOMMODATIONS
Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter, which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

NETIQUETTE COMMUNICATION COURTESY
All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions and chats, more information can be found at: http://teach.ufl.edu/wp-content/uploads/2012/08/NetiquetteGuideforOnlineCourses.pdf

ONLINE COURSE EVALUATIONS
Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/.
