CLA 6125: THE AUGUSTAN AGE

Mondays periods 7:30-9:30pm (online) Professor Jennifer A. Rea (e-mail: jrea@ufl.edu)

Office: Dauer 142 Office Hours: M/F 2nd period and by appt.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The class content, assignments, and discussions will be focused on items that are relevant to teaching the Augustan Age authors, so a strong reading knowledge of Latin is essential. We are going to be exploring questions such as “Did the Aeneid ever become Augustus' poem?” and "What does the Ara Pacis tell us about the values of the community of Augustan Rome?” There will also be much discussion of issues pertaining to Augustan Age history and culture as well.

Course evaluation will be based on: class participation (15%), one final presentation (25%), and a writing project (book review based on BMCR format): rough draft (20%) and final draft (40%).

Course Goals

Students will work on their writing and analytical skills through close reading of the Latin authors in addition to review of modern scholarship.

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS

Class Discussions
As a member of this seminar you are expected to arrive on time and be prepared to engage in a thoughtful, informed, and critical discussion of the primary and secondary readings.

Written Assignments
You must acknowledge that there is room in your work for improvement and be prepared to develop your own critical skills by contributing constructively during discussions of your classmates' writing and your own. All written assignments are to be handed in on time (see Late Assignments, below for policy on late work). Work handed in late due to an unexcused absence will cause the assignment grade to be penalized one-half grade for every day the assignment is late.

Attendance Policy
Regular attendance and active participation are mandatory.
More than one absence will cause your final grade to be penalized.
Tardiness will count as half an absence.

Textbooks:
Cambridge Companion to the Age of Augustus (Galinsky) ISBN 0521003938
Res Gestae Divi Augusti: Text, Translation and Commentary (Cooley) ISBN 0521601282
Late Assignments: You will be allowed to hand in work late only for excused absences, such as required student participation in a university-sponsored event (you must submit official documentation to the professor from the appropriate faculty or staff member before the event); religious holidays (notify the professor within the first two weeks of class); medical emergencies (with documentation from a health care provider); family emergencies (with valid written documentation). Regarding medical and family emergencies, it is your responsibility to notify me as soon as possible that you will need accommodations. Students with a valid excuse have one week after a missed assignment (or one week after recovering from an illness) to hand in the work.
