

CLA 2151 CLASSICAL ANTIQUITY AND SUSTAINABILITY
SPRING 2013 KEY TO PRACTICE QUIZ 1

I. Multiple Choice Questions (5 pts. Each)

01. Egypt is bound by seas in the
(a) north and east
02. The Alps bound Italy in the
(a) north
03. Greece is
(b) east of Italy
04. Thera (Santorini):
(a) a volcanic location in southeast Greece
05. The Nile flows
(b) from south to north
06. The Nile flooded its valley
(b) every year
07. The Tiber flooded its valley
(c) at random times
08. Red granite is a rock prevalently occurring in
(c) Egypt
09. 40,000 BCE:
(c) neither A or B
10. Dendrochronology
(b) a dating methodology based on the analysis of tree ring patterns

I. True / False Questions (5 pts. each)

11. Greek geology is poor in limestone F
12. The Greek Aegean islands are the tips of submerged mountains T
13. The Nile sources are in Egypt F
14. The earliest agrarian economies date to the Neolithic T
15. Palaeolithic means 'Recent Stone Age' F
16. The beginnings of Rome are traditionally dated to the Iron Age, 753 BCE T
17. Vesuvius is the name of a volcano in southeast Greece F
18. The ancient Egyptians called their land Kemet, 'The Dark Earth' T
19. The ancient Egyptian calendar had three seasons T
20. Marble is a rock resulting from metamorphosed limestone T