Course Description and Objectives

This is the third semester of the three-semester beginning Latin series at the University of Florida. Students will master vocabulary, morphology, and syntax in chapters 28-40 of Wheelock's Latin. Students leave this class prepared to succeed in 2000- and 3000-level Latin reading classes.

More specifically, students will continue learning the inflectional patterns of Latin and will be able to recognize different forms of declensions and conjugations. They will improve their Latin vocabulary, grammar, and syntax skills, while exploring Latin mythology and culture expressed through the original literature. Students will be asked to practice daily and eventually master their ability to translate from one language into the other. Thus, they will significantly improve the awareness of both languages – English and Latin– in their respective elements of vocabulary, morphology, and syntax. Students will also read selections of prose and poetry in the original Latin.

Policies

1. Your perfect attendance is expected. The university recognizes the right of the individual professor to make attendance mandatory. After due warning, professors can prohibit further attendance and subsequently assign a failing grade for excessive absences. Please, consult UF policies for details: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/>

2. Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation. Please, consult the DRC center for further guidance and keep the lines of communication open with me, too: <https://disability.ufl.edu/get-started/>

3. The use of cellular devices during class is strictly prohibited.

4. Academic Honesty is expected at all times. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity. On all work submitted for credit by students at the university, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.
