

Movement through Coins: Detecting Movement and Mobility between Rome and Britain through Late Iron Age British Coinage

Figure 9: Stater, gold, (Obverse) TINCO in incuse tablet on plain field; (Reverse) Warrior on rearing horse r. holding spear, South Britannia Mint, c. 20 BCE-10 CE, ABC 1055.

Figure 10: Unit, silver, (Obverse) Central pellet with six radiating lines, alongside faint inscription traces; (Reverse) Horse and figure on dolphin with faint TINC below, South Britannia Mint, c. 20 BCE-10 CE, ABC 1127.

Figure 13:

- a) Left: Cunobelin unit, silver, Mythical creature (sphinx) seated left, Mint unknown, c. 10-40 CE, ABC 2870.
- b) Right: Augustan aureus, gold, Reverse of Sphinx seated left, Mint of Pergamum, c. 19-18 BCE, RPC I, 511.

Figure 14:

- a) Left: Cunobelin unit, silver, Reverse of Seated figure r. holding caduceus, CA behind, Mint unknown, c. 10-40 CE, ABC 2903.
- b) Right: Augustan aes, copper, Reverse of Female figure seated l. holding caduceus and cornucopia, Mint of Hispania, c. Unknown, RPC I, 52.