INSTRUCTOR: Professor Jennifer A. Rea

E-mail: jrea@ufl.edu Office: Dauer 139 Office Phone: 352 392-2075

OFFICE HOURS: (Via Zoom) MWF 3rd period & by appt.

COURSE WEBSITE: <http://elearning.ufl.edu>

COURSE COMMUNICATIONS: You can e-mail me, use Canvas inbox, or visit my virtual office hours online. For private communications, it is best to use my UF e-mail. You can also talk to me during class if you have questions. Students can expect to hear back from me within 24 hours, except on weekends, in which case it may be up to 48 hours. All assignments will be graded within one week of the due date.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK: None

MATERIALS AND SUPPLIES FEES: None

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES: We will be using the online texts of the Latin library for Horace and Juvenal. A useful online dictionary and helpful online Latin grammar are located in the "Quick Links" section of the CANVAS website. If you prefer to purchase these items, I will be happy to recommend texts to you.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Translation and analysis of the Roman satirists Horace, Persius, Juvenal or Martial. (H and N)

PREREQUISITE KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS: One 2000-level Latin course, advanced placement or equivalent high school study.

COURSE GOALS AND/OR OBJECTIVES: By the end of this course, students will be able to:

1. Learn to critically evaluate original and unique aspects of Roman satire
2. Assess thematic connections between ancient Roman culture and modern culture
3. Identify key constructions from Latin grammar and syntax and gain knowledge of essential vocabulary, along with improving your translation and scansion skills

HOW THIS COURSE RELATES TO THE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES IN CLASSICS:

A. Humanities Component

Humanities (H)

Humanities courses provide instruction in the history, key themes, principles, terminology, and theory or methodologies used within a humanities discipline or the humanities in general. Students will learn to identify and to analyze the key elements, biases and influences that shape thought. These courses emphasize clear and effective analysis and approach issues and problems from multiple perspectives.

Close reading: The students will read selections from Horace and Juvenal in Latin. They will gain a solid understanding of the genre of satire and its key elements. Along with learning more about Latin grammar and syntax, they will analyze the influence of Roman satire on modern literature and popular media.

Critical thinking: The students will also engage with secondary texts and media that analyze the primary text. This will encourage them to understand their own experiences with modern popular media that ancient Roman literature has influenced.

Analytical writing (expression of ideas): This class will have a written component as well as the final presentation each student will complete. Students will be required to engage with the assigned sources in a way that demonstrates their capability to understand complex problems from multiple perspectives.

Communication: All class meetings have a built-in discussion component. Students will be required to present their work on an assigned topic and explain their conclusions.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS: This is a synchronous course that meets MWF 7th period in person and via Zoom. The course contains a Course Orientation module and 15 content modules. You have one week per module to complete assigned work. Each week, you will have assignments, such as translating the Latin text. Sometimes you will also watch short videos or read articles or blogposts containing course-related content in preparation for class.

COURSE POLICIES:

ATTENDANCE POLICY: Daily attendance will be taken. Students are expected to arrive at class on time and have prepared the homework. Each student is allowed two unexcused absences. After that, there will be a five point deduction from your final grade each time you are late to class, leave early, arrive unprepared, or are absent.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

QUIZ/EXAM DATES/POLICIES: You must notify me ASAP if you cannot meet your obligations for the course. Students will receive one week to prepare for any makeup assignment, if circumstances allow it.

MAKE-UP POLICY: Students are expected to complete all assigned work by the due dates. Excused absences are consistent with university policies in the undergraduate catalog (<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>) and require appropriate documentation. Work handed in that does not have an excused absence will have a 5 point deduction for each day it is late.

ASSIGNMENT POLICY: It is expected that you will arrive on time to class ready to work and have assigned work completed by the start of class. It will be difficult for you to fulfill the course goals and participate effectively in class without your synchronous participation. My aim is to create an in-class and distance-learning environment that supports and encourages your learning, so please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns about the course or course assignments.

COURSE TECHNOLOGY: We will be using Zoom and Canvas. (Click on the links to learn more about how to access Zoom, our online classroom, and Canvas, our course infrastructure, at UF!) We will also look at educational videos on YouTube. ONLINE COURSE EVALUATION: Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

UF POLICIES:

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACCOMMODATING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: “Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.”

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACADEMIC CONDUCT: UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor in this class.

CLASS DEMEANOR OR NETIQUETTE: All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions and chats. Please remember, there is a difference between having a social meeting in Zoom with your close, personal friends and being online in a UF Zoom classroom with your professor and peers. You should always be respectful of others' opinions – you are allowed to disagree with others but should express your disagreement in a respectful way. Eating and drinking are strongly discouraged during class time and using a cell phone during class is not allowed. Disruptions in class will result in a 5 point deduction to your final grade each time they occur.

GETTING HELP:

For issues with technical difficulties for Canvas or Zoom, please contact the UF Help Desk at:

- <http://helpdesk.ufl.edu>
- (352) 392-HELP (4357)
- Walk-in: HUB 132

Any requests for make-ups due to technical issues MUST be accompanied by the ticket number received from the Help Desk when the problem was reported to them. The ticket number will document the time and date of the problem. You MUST e-mail your instructor within 24 hours of the technical difficulty if you wish to request a make-up.

COVID-19 STATEMENT:

The participation portion of your grade for this class will be calculated on the basis of your attendance and your participation in class activities. Since the pedagogical approach of this course depends heavily on student engagement and interaction, you are required, at a minimum, to participate in class activities through the audio function of Zoom. Your video presence is invited as well.

Also, your microphone should be off unless you are the one speaking in class to cut down on background noise. You can use the chat box or raise hand function, or simply unmute your mic when you are ready to participate in our discussions. See below for exceptions to this policy.

Our class sessions may be audio-visually recorded for students in the class to refer to and for enrolled students who are unable to attend live. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate verbally are agreeing to have their voices recorded.

If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared.

As in all UF courses, unauthorized recording and unauthorized sharing of recorded materials is prohibited.

Disclaimer: This syllabus represents the current course plans and objectives. As we go through the semester, those plans may need to change to enhance the class learning opportunity. Such changes, communicated clearly, are not unusual and should be expected.
