COURSE DESCRIPTION

In this graduate level course in the Latin language, we will read the Agricola in its entirety, and relevant passages from the Annals, Histories, and Germania in Latin and in translation. Students will also read relevant scholarship.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students are provided instruction in the Latin language of the Agricola, its social milieu, and its historical content.

- Content Objectives: Students will be able to read the Latin accurately so as to comprehend the meaning of the Agricola.
- Communication Objectives: Students will translate clearly and effectively in written and oral form.
- Critical Thinking Objectives: Students comprehend the Agricola within the corpus of Tacitean works. Students will identify trends in scholarship.

COURSE FORMAT

Students will be called on to translate aloud. It is recommended that students prepare the translations in advance by making vocabulary lists as necessary and reading the assignment AT LEAST TWICE and preferably a third time with a classmate before coming to class. Students should use a clean text only in class. Students will deliver oral reports that are at least 30 minutes in length, followed by 30 minutes of discussion. Research papers will be developed from these in-depth oral reports.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK

- Woodman, A. J., with C. S. Kraus. Tacitus: Agricola. ISBN: 9780521700290.

ASSIGNMENTS AND REQUIREMENTS

1. Midterm examination for which students translate passages from the Agricola.
2. A research paper.
3. Participation and Attendance. Perfect attendance is expected, and you will receive credit for attending. Participation upon attendance is also expected.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc>). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student, who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation.
